A Lot To 'Like': Brett Young Scores Longest Command On Country Airplay, Easton Corbin Hits Top 10

Brett Young leads Billboard's Country Airplay chart (dated Jan. 13) for a career-best third week, as "Like I Loved You" (BMLG) remains in the penthouse. In its 25th frame, the song boasts an increase of 13 percent to 46.3 million audience impressions in the week ending Jan. 7, according to Nielsen Music.

(Most titles on the chart show significant gains, reflecting the first full week of regular programming after the holidays.)

"Loved," co-written by Young with Jesse Lee, is the second total and consecutive Country Airplay leader for Young, and the 36-year-old native Californian's first to reign for three weeks. After his first single, "Sleep Without You," peaked at No. 2 on Dec. 10, 2016, "In Case You Didn't Know" led for two weeks beginning June 10, 2017.

"For an artist and songwriter, there's nothing more exciting than a No. 1," Young tells Billboard. "Now having two multi-week No. 1 singles, those are accolades I will forever cherish. I'm very thankful for the support that country radio and the fans have given my music."

As with "Sleep" and "Case," Young's third single is from his self-titled debut full-length, which arrived and peaked at No. 2 on the Top Country Albums survey dated March 2, 2017. It has sold 178,000 copies to date.
