14 New Country Artists to Watch in 2017

While 2016 saw several new Country acts from last year's Artists to Watch list break through the genre like Maren Morris, Tucker Beathard and Kane Brown, 2017 also shows much promise. Here are 14 acts to keep on your radar in 2017 (in alphabetical order).

Bailey Bryan

Bailey Bryan is making waves with her debut single "Own It," which urges us to not dwell on our imperfections and instead, live life to the fullest. Bryan is a name you're bound to hear more often as Lady Antebellum's Hillary Scott recently nominated her as an Artist of Tomorrow, a new CBS web series which shines a light on up-and-coming artists. Additionally, Bryan will have the chance to perform during GRAMMY Live leading up to the 59th Annual GRAMMY Awards.
