Dierks Bentley Announces His 10th Annual Miles & Music for Kids Celebrity Motorcycle Ride and Concert

Mark your calendars: Dierks Bentley's 10th Annual Miles & Music For Kids celebrity motorcycle ride and concert will take place on Nov. 1 in Nashville.

"I look forward to this day all year," Bentley tells PEOPLE, of his beloved annual fundraiser for Children's Miracle Network. "It's my favorite show to play. It's sort of like my Thanksgiving – I get to reflect and give back."

Joining Bentley in the line-up this year will be Florida Georgia Line, Thomas Rhett, Cole Swindell, The Cadillac Three, Canaan Smith and Brooke Eden.

"When we first started Miles and Music we really didn't know what it was going to be or if we'd make any money at all," says Bentley, who is celebrating a milestone 10 years of Miles & Music rides this year. "I love motorcycles and I love music and I love giving back to the local community. Nashville has given me so much. "

And Bentley, 39, has given much in return, raising more than $3 million dollars for the Children's Miracle Network over the event's history.

"It really hits you," he says. "You meet some of the folks that are using the services of the Children's Hospital, the kids and their parents, and it touches you. Everyone is donating their time or money and it's such a feel good day!"

All proceeds from Bentley's 10th Annual Miles & Music for Kids will benefit Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt, a Children's Miracle Network Hospital.

Presale tickets will begin on Tuesday, Aug. 18 at 10:00 a.m. CT through Ticketmaster, followed by general public tickets on Friday, Aug. 21 at 10:00 a.m. CT. For more information, check Bentley's website.
