Taylor Swift added another superstar to her 1989 guest roster last night when she welcomed Dierks Bentley to her Kansas City stage. After, she posted a touching Instagram, writing, “Thank you @DierksBentley for singing ‘Every Mile A Memory’ tonight in KC!!” before adding, “You’ve always been so nice to me, and I’ve wanted to share a stage with you. So fun!”

Bentley posted a video to Instagram of their performance of his 2006 tune.

Swift’s U.S. tour dates end next month, and she’s welcomed just about everyone to join her on stage. (Though, we’re still waiting for a Ryan Adams’ guest spot after his 1989 reinterpretation dropped yesterday.)
