Will Jason Aldean & Wife Brittany Kerr Ever Record a Duet Together?

“Extra’s” special correspondent Alecia Davis recently spoke to country singer Jason Aldean in the great outdoors.

Earlier this week, Jason took his wife Brittany Kerr as his date for the ACM Honors in Nashville. They have been married for almost two years.

When asked if they would be pouring their hearts out in a duet, Aldean played coy, saying, “You never know... at some point, maybe it might happen.”

Aldean also opened up about bonding time with his daughters. Watch!
