If you're in a melancholy mood leading into fall, then check out this first look at Jason Aldean's Pandora session featuring his new single, "A Little More Summertime." The song is off his upcoming album, "They Don't Know," which is available for your listening pleasure this Friday.

With lyrics like, "They're boarding up this water town / Ain't nobody hanging 'round / Another grey September day / Was I crazy to think she'd stay," this song has us seriously yearning for one more sunny beach weekend (and a summer love story).

The full Pandora Session series will be available on Monday, Sept. 12, at www.pandora.com/pandorasessions.
