Jason Aldean will grab the chance to go fishing any way he can. "Sometimes I'll pull my truck up to some pond, let the tailgate down and just sit there and hang out," says the 30-year-old singer and father of two with wife Jessica. Aldean has already taken his older daughter, Keeley, 4, out to cast a line. "She's got her own pink Disney princess pole," says Aldean. "The first time she caught a fish, she threw her pole down and started running. But probably the older she gets, the more she won't be into it, so that's why it's fun to take her now."

“Fishing gives me some quiet time, time to think and an opportunity to go out, turn off my phone and cut myself off from the daily grind”
