Lady Antebellum

Heart Break

June 9

The country trio took a brief hiatus before recording their anticipated seventh LP — singers Hillary Scott and Charles Kelley each dropped solo sets while Dave Haywood focused on producing — but now, the group finds itself ready for a jam-packed 2017 as Lady Antebellum. The new set's 13 tracks burst with refreshed energy, but there's one song in particular that has Haywood gushing. "I'm most excited for people to hear the lyrical twist on the title track," says the guitarist. "We wrote 'Heart Break' at the beach and I feel like once we wrote that we felt like we were on course for this entire record. So, check out the lyrical spin and dive into that song." —M.V.
