

Thomas Rhett's 5 best lyrics

The song is a sweet one that is based on a popular expression about a man wanting a woman. It begins by the singer stating that he is trying to come up with something smooth to say to the woman while sipping on drink number two. He goes on to say that she is the prettiest thing he has ever seen.

“Beer With Jesus”

“How’d you turn the other cheek, To save a sorry soul like me, Do you hear the prayers I send, What happens when life ends, And when you think you’re comin’ back again, I’d tell everyone, but no one would believe it, If I could have a beer with Jesus.”

“Beer With Jesus” was released in September 2012. It was written by Thomas Rhett, Rick Huckaby, and Lance Miller. The song was featured on his album, “It Goes Like This.” It peaked at twenty-sixth spot on the Hot Country Singles chart.

The singer in the song wonders the types of questions he would ask Jesus if he would ever have the chance to meet him in a bar and have a drink with him. One question he would ask would be if he heard the prayers that he sent him.

“That Ain’t My Truck”

“That ain’t my truck in her drive, Man, this ain’t my day tonight, Looks like she’s in love and I’m out of luck, That ain’t my shadow on her wall, Lord, this don’t look good at all, That’s my girl, my whole world, But that ain’t my truck.”

“That Ain’t My Truck” was written by Rhett Atkins, Tom Shapiro, and Chris Waters. Thomas released the song in May 1995. It was featured on his album, “A Thousand Memories.” It peaked at the number three spot on the Hot Country Singles Chart.

The narrator in the song, “That Ain’t My Truck” sings about a girl who is dating two girls. He is one of the guys in the song. Finally, she decides to make a choice between them. He doesn’t hear from her and decides to drive by her house and finds the other guy’s truck sitting in her driveway.

“Make Me Wanna”

“Pull this truck to the side of the road, Slide on over, let me hold you close and tell, You everything I’m thinking, Hop on out and let the tailgate fall, Get drunk on you with no alcohol, If you don’t stop I’m gonna, Girl you make me wanna.”

“Make Me Wanna” was written by Thomas Rhett, Bart Butler, and Larry McCoy. It was released in August 2014. It was featured on Thomas’s album, “It Goes Like This.” The song peaked at the number two spot on the Hot Country Singles chart.

The song has a sexy and upbeat sound to it. The words are an expression of how a man feels toward the woman he loves.

“Crash And Burn”

“So I guess it’s over baby and déjà vu again, Who’d have thought that time don’t stop and Somehow girl, the world keeps spinning and I guess I’ve turned myself into a solitary man Ain’t like I’m the only one that’s in the shoes That I am, Do you hear that? I’m right back, At the sound of lonely calling, Do you hear that? It’s where I’m at, It’s the sound of teardrops falling down, down, At slamming door and a lesson learned, I let another lover crash and burn.”

“Crash and Burn” was written by Jesse Frasure and Chris Stapleton. The song was digitally released on April 7, 2015. It was released by country radio airplay on April 27, 2015. The song was featured on Thomas’s album, “Tangled Up.” The song peaked at the number seven spot on the Country Hot Singles chart.

The song is about a man who is recently single, after another relationship has crashed and burn. He sings about being lonely and teardrops falling.