The 10 Best Country Songs of 2014

1. "Makes Me Wanna" - Thomas Rhett

OK, this track mentions trucks and tailgates, and gives the female character in the song a request to "slide on over." So, you're probably thinking -- What sets this one apart? The answer is the '70s R&B-influenced production that melds with Rhett's southern twang to make for a record that would make Otis Redding smile. It's an undeniable pick for the top of this list!
