BRETT YOUNG ANNOUNCES THE CHAPTERS TOUR: SEE THE DATES

Brett Young announced Monday (Nov. 4) that he'll embark on The Chapters Tour in 2020. Young will trek through nearly 30 cities in the United States and Canada, starting in Knoxville's Civic Auditorium on Jan. 30. Matt Ferranti will join the headlining country singer as the special guest.

"I'm so excited about The Chapters Tour for so many reasons," Young said in a press release. "Being in a position to continue to headline even bigger shows is an honor and humbling, and I can't wait to show our fans what we've been working on for them. They're definitely in for some surprises."

The Ticket to L.A. performer already has incredible live feats under his belt: Earlier in March, Young sold out three back-to-back shows at Los Angeles' The Novo, making him the first country artist to do so at the venue, according to the release.
