Rascal Flatts are planning a busy summer on the road, and so are Dan + Shay and Carly Pearce.

The "I Like the Sound of That" hitmakers announced their 2018 Back to Us Tour on Wednesday, featuring the duo and Pearce as openers. The shows will kick off in Hartford, Conn., though dates have yet to be revealed.

"I can't describe how much we are looking forward to the tour this summer!" singer Gary LeVox says in a press release. "We've been lucky enough to be in a position to tour consistently throughout our career, and last year felt like the perfect time to reset as we focused on the release of our 10th album. Coming back this year and with our friends Dan + Shay, who are some of the best guys around, as well as Carly who had an amazing year last year, makes it all the more exciting! It's going to be an awesome time for us and the fans!"

Pearce is pretty stoked too, tweeting:

The run will find the collective trekking through 25 cities from coast to coast. The Back to Us tour borrows its name from the band's latest album and includes stops in Virginia, New Jersey and New York plus Florida, Texas and California. Fans will be able to purchase tickets on Jan. 26 via Megaticket.com.
