

(8.31.17) <http://newsok.com/article/5562409>

Video: Rascal Flatts performs 'I Won't Let Go' in honor of Hurricane Harvey victims on 'Good Morning America's' 'Day of Giving'

Superstar vocal group Rascal Flatts - lead singer Gary LeVox, bassist Jay DeMarcus and guitarist Joe Don Rooney, who hails from Picher - performed a hopeful rendition of their smash 2010 single "I Won't Let Go" on "Good Morning America" today to help raise funds for those affected by Hurricane Harvey.

The trio also performed its new single "Back To Us" as part of the fundraising event known as "Day Of Giving," which continued all day on ABC, Freeform and Radio Disney. The program offered viewers a call to action to donate to the American Red Cross, with proceeds going to those most impacted.

"Back To Us" is the harmony-led title track taken from Rascal Flatts' 10th studio album (Big Machine Records) and follows back-to-back chart-toppers "Yours If You Want It" and "I Like The Sound Of That."

Brandy Bam McDonnell

about 8 months ago

Beautiful.

Video: Rascal Flatts perform a moving tribute of 'I Won't I

The country music group performed their tribute live on

ABCNEWS.GO.COM

Brandy Bam McDonnell

about 8 months ago

Rascal Flatts performed on "Good Morning America" today for the "Day of Giving" to benefit those affected by Hurricane Harvey.

Video: Rascal Flatts rocks out to its new song 'Back to Us'

The country music group gives a special live performance of its new song in Times...

ABCNEWS.GO.COM