NEW TRACKS: ASHLEY MCBRYDE, CAYLEE HAMMACK, CRAIG MORGAN, KALSEY KULYK

Caylee Hammack has shared the new track “Preciatcha,” a study in appreciating the lessons learned from a soured relationship. The track was co-written and co-produced by Hammack, along with Laura Veltz and Jordan Schmidt. The track follows Hammack’s breakout single “Family Tree.”

“My mother once told me that every hand you hold is a lesson or a blessing,” shared Hammack. “If you find good love, you hold on to it. If you find something else by accident, learn what you must from that experience and move on. ‘Preciatcha’ is about searching for a silver lining in a storm. It’s my song for the broken hearts that deserved better but didn’t get it.”
