

THE BEST MUSIC FESTIVALS ON THE BEACH IN FLORIDA

COURTESY OF KARA FRANKER

Packing a serious punch of superstar performers every year, the Tortuga Music Festival is the ultimate three-day live music concert series directly on the beach in Fort Lauderdale. Featuring a toes-in-the-sand mix of country, rock, and roots, big headliners have included Kenny Chesney, Jason Aldean, Sheryl Crow, Flo Rida, Zac Brown Band, and more. The annual spring concert is held in April and raises funds for the Rock The Ocean Foundation, an ocean conservation initiative. So not only do you get to listen to great live music with a killer view, the funds raised by ticket sales go toward a good cause.
