TORTUGA MUSIC FESTIVAL 2020 TICKETS, LINEUP: MIRANDA LAMBERT, LUKE BRYAN, TIM MCGRAW, PITBULL

Miranda Lambert, Luke Bryan and Tim McGraw will be the headliners for Rock the Ocean's 2020 Tortuga Music Festival, returning to Fort Lauderdale Beach Park April 17-19.

The first wave of discounted passes for the eighth annual country-music and ocean-conservation festival will go on sale 10 a.m. Friday, Nov. 1, at TortugaMusicFestival.com.

Prices will be $239 for a three-day pass, $1,249 for a three-day VIP pass and $1,999 for a three-day Super VIP pass. If you have already attended Tortuga, you qualify for the Alumni rate: $199 for a three-day pass, $1,100 for the VIP three-day pass. Layaway options are available.

Led by its first-ever female headliner in Lambert, Tortuga's diverse 2020 lineup also will include Miami hip-hop icon Pitbull, top-selling singer Kelsea Ballerini and a parade of fan-favorite country dudes:

Jon Pardi, Morgan Wallen, Lee Brice, Chris Lane, Cole Swindell, Jordan Davis, Billy Currington, Riley Green and LoCash.

Also performing with be veteran pop rockers Barenaked Ladies, Gone West (featuring Colbie Caillat), reggae icons Toots and the Maytals, rapper Vanilla Ice and Tim McGraw's country-rap protégé Blanco Brown, among others.

Currently on her females-only Roadside Bars & Pink Guitars Tour — which stops at Orlando's Amway Center on Nov. 9 with Maren Morris, Tenille Townes and her Pistol Annies trio — Lambert is scheduled to release a new album, "Wildcard," on Nov. 1. She recently shared a single from the album, the gloriously retro-country ballad "Tequila Does."

Lambert has had 14 Top 10 singles on the Billboard Hot 100 chart, including No. 1 hits "Somethin' Bad," "Heart Like Mine," "Over You," "The Heart That Built Me" and "We Were Us."

This will be Bryan's third year as a headliner at Tortuga (also in 2017 and 2014) and McGraw's second (2016). Other headliners since the festival's debut in 2013 include Kenny Chesney, Eric Church, Jason Aldean, the Zac Brown Band, Blake Shelton, Dierks Bentley, Chris Stapleton and Thomas Rhett.

Along with the music, the festival's focus is in raising awareness on issues related to ocean conservation and research, as well as protection of sea turtles that nest along the Florida coast.
