JASON ALDEAN, MIRANDA LAMBERT, ZAC BROWN BAND LEAD 2019 WATERSHED FESTIVAL LINEUP

EVENT RETURNS TO WASHINGTON'S GORGE AMPHITHEATRE FOR EIGHTH YEAR ON AUGUST 2ND

For its eighth annual iteration, the Watershed Music and Camping Festival will feature a diverse cross-section of mainstream country performers. Headliners for the event, set for August 2nd to 4th at Washington's Gorge Amphitheatre, include Jason Aldean, Zac Brown Band and Miranda Lambert.

Based in scenic George, Washington, overlooking the Columbia River Gorge, Watershed is routinely one of the most-anticipated events of country festival season. Lambert's set this year will include an appearance by the Pistol Annies, her trio with Ashley Monroe and Angaleena Presley, and other performers throughout the weekend include Danielle Bradbery, Brothers Osborne, Kane Brown, Cam, Cody Johnson, Midland, Kip Moore, Maren Morris, Carly Pearce, Randy Rogers Band, Michael Ray, Mitchell Tenpenny, Chris Young and DeeJay Silver. Passes will go on sale Friday, February 22nd at 10 a.m. PT.

The 2018 headliners for Watershed included Blake Shelton, Brantley Gilbert and Brad Paisley. In the case of 2019's top-billed performers, both Aldean and Zac Brown Band have already announced extensive headlining tour dates for 2019, while Lambert — other than a few one-off festival appearances — hasn't revealed any such plans. Her next date on the calendar is an April 1st performance at Loretta Lynn's all-star birthday celebration in Nashville.
