Luke Combs, Jason Aldean & Thomas Rhett to Headline Faster Horses Festival

Faster Horses will return in 2020 and the lineup is a stacked one. The Brooklyn, Michigan-based festival will be held July 17-19 and boasts headliners Luke Combs, Jason Aldean and Thomas Rhett.

The reigning Academy of Country Music's festival of the year will also include performances by Jimmie Allen, Ingrid Andress, Kelsea Ballerini, Russell Dickerson, Gone West ft. Colbie Caillat, Riley Green, HARDY, Chris Lane, Tracy Lawrence, David Lee Murphy, Jon Pardi, Carly Pearce, Mitchell Tenpenny and DeeJay Silver. Each act will perform as part of the festival's main stage lineup.

Additional artists are expected to be announced in the coming weeks to appear on the festival's two stages.

"As Faster Horses has continued to grow, we continue to look for more ways to provide an enhanced experience, this year is no exception," shared president of country touring at Live Nation, Brian O'Connell. "Obviously, with the announcement of these stellar artists that will join us for the Party of the Summer, we are also introducing several new camping options, and a completely reimagined VIP experience for those that are looking for a more upscale getaway this summer."

Passes for the three-day camping festival will go on sale Feb. 7 at 10 a.m. ET. For more information and to purchase tickets, visit fasterhorses.com.
